DECISION ON ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS<sup>1</sup>

Vowell, Chief Special Master:

In this case under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program,<sup>2</sup> I issued a decision on February 5, 2014, that awarded compensation pursuant to the parties' joint stipulation. On March 4, 2014, the parties filed a stipulation for attorney fees and costs and a statement pursuant to General Order #9 conveying that petitioner incurred no personal litigation costs. The stipulation indicates that after informal discussions, petitioner amended her fees and costs request to an amount that respondent does not object.

I find that this petition was brought in good faith and that there existed a reasonable basis for the claim. Therefore, an award for fees and costs is appropriate, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1). Further, the proposed amount seems reasonable and appropriate. Accordingly, I hereby award the total $17,899.69<sup>3</sup> in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and petitioner's counsel of record for petitioner's attorney fees and costs.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.<sup>4</sup>

IT IS SO ORDERED.

<sup>3</sup> This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec'y, HHS, 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir.1991).

<sup>4</sup> Entry of judgment can be expedited by each party's filing of a notice renouncing the right to seek review. See Vaccine Rule 11(a).
